

Elected Officials, Community Leaders, and Religious Leaders
Who Support Ending the Death Penalty in Alameda County

Elected Officials:

U.S. Congresswoman Barbara Lee, 9th Congressional District of California
Councilmember Jean Quan, Oakland City Council
Councilmember Kriss Worthington, Berkeley City Council
Supervisor Keith Carson, Alameda County Board of Supervisors
Supervisor Nate Miley, Alameda County Board of Supervisors

Community Leaders:

Eva Patterson, Equal Justice Society

Religious Leaders:

Associate Pastor Marjorie D. Wilkes, Plymouth United Church of Christ
Catherine Cascade, Zen Priest and Hospice Chaplain, Berkeley Zen Center
Father Declan Dean, All Saints Catholic Church, Hayward
Father Donald MacKinnon, Redemptorists of Berkeley
Father Jayson Landeza, St. Columba Catholic Church
Pastor Jeffrey Spencer, Niles Congregational Church
President and Professor of American Religion, William McKinney, Pacific School of Religion
Rabbi Allen Bennett, Temple Israel of Alameda
Rabbi Diane Elliot, Aquarian Minyan, Oakland
Rabbi Burt Jacobson, Kehilla Synagogue, Oakland
Rabbi Harry Manhoff, Temple Beth Sholom, San Leandro
Rabbi Dorothy Richman, Berkeley Hillel
Rabbi Judy Shanks, Temple Isaiah, Lafayette
Reverend Alexandra Frappier, Berkeley Zen Center
Reverend Basil DePinto, Corpus Christi Roman Catholic Church, Piedmont
Reverend Bob Mathews, Bay Association of the United Church of Christ
Reverend Marjorie D. Wilkes, Plymouth United Church of Christ
Reverend Susan Meeter, Mira Vista United Church of Christ
Sojun Mil Weitsman, Abbot, Berkeley Zen Center